COMMUNITY AWARDS

NOMINATION FORM

I confirm that to the best of my knowledge the information on this form is correct. I have discussed the nomination with my nominee and they are happy to be nominated.

Thank you for your nomination. Good luck!

bearsdenfestival.org

RECOGNISING VOLUNTEERS Bearsden Festival Association is launching four Community Awards to raise awareness of all the brilliant voluntary work going on in Bearsden, and hopefully inspire some new local volunteers.

The four categories are:

Young Volunteer of the Year (under 25)
Long Service to the Community
Health and Wellbeing Volunteer of the Year
Arts and Culture Volunteer of the Year

Who will you nominate?

Nominations can be made online at www.bearsdenfestival.org, by email to awards@bearsdenfestival.org or by post to Bearsden Festival Office, 28 Kirk Place, Bearsden G61 3RT

The closing date is 2pm on Friday 28 March 2019 and late nominations cannot be accepted.

The decision of the panel is final. The panel members will judge in good faith and cannot enter into discussions about their decisions.

Who can nominate?

Anyone who is aware of the voluntary work of the nominee, including colleagues and people who have benefited from the volunteer support.

Who can you nominate?

The nominee must live or be based in Bearsden. Their work must benefit people in Bearsden.

What do you need to know?

Please give some explanation of how the nominee meets the criteria you are nominating them for, for example, tell us what they do, where the volunteering takes place, who benefits from their work, what has been the impact of their work.

Shortlisted nominees and nominators will be notified by telephone or email during the week commencing 15 April. The award ceremony, hosted by Hardeep Singh Kohli, will be held on the evening of 10 May at Bearsden Academy during the Opening Night of the Bearsden Festival.
