

A Journey through Advent

Week 3: Tuesday

The Lord redeems the life of his servants;
none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

Psalm 34

How green is your Advent? Don't fill the kettle when you only need enough boiled water for a cup of tea.

In the parable of the two brothers, Jesus told the chief priests and elders that people who look the least religious would enter the kingdom of Heaven ahead of them because, in the end, they chose to do God's will. Preaching one thing, and doing something else is not good enough.

Many companies have mission statements that look great on paper but more time is spent writing them than implementing them. Pope Francis' encyclical Laudato si' is subtitled "on care for our common home" and it calls us to turn our words into actions by actively caring for his, and our, world. If we each do a little....

And let's try to be more patient and merciful to others, because, in their brokenness, these brothers and sisters of ours might be closer to God than we can imagine.

adapted from theologyofwork.org and godzdogz

Music to listen to...

Christ, be our Light

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qibAAo0JiEQ>

Peace Prayer

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4vVICXJt0Y4>

A Mindful Moment...

In the next 24 hours perform one random act of kindness.

A Thought to Carry Through the Day...

The greatest way to live with honour in this world is to be what we pretend to be.

Socrates